

CELEBRATING AFRICAN UNITY IN CHRIST: AFRICAN SUNDAY 2024.

On Sunday 4th February. At KUCC, the crowning of Mr. and Ms. KUCC African Sunday 2024 was awesome.

Have a leak up of the day.

As usual they never dissappoint. The Kucc choir well present in their African vitenge sang the African mass.

All different but one aim; 'AFRICAN

*And the drum recieved the most intense beat ever.
It had to be an African beat.*

*WAIT! I NEED TO RECORD THIS ONE. My mother and friends will be very happy to see it.
HEY! LET ME SEE THAT.*

No one could resist the natural pull as all eyes were turned towards the African presentations performed by the various SCCs.

PEN AND PAPER READY EYES ON THE LOOK. The judges from left, Ms. Julie, Miss Bertha Chokaa 'Tr. Bertha' and Mrs. Janet Njau all ready to analyze the models and identify the Best out of the Best.

And when the game was on.....

TAG NUMBER *** STEP FORWARD... Was all that filled the walls of the church as the judges got a tough test in selecting who was best fit to carry the title.

AND FINALLY.....

'You deserve it, have the crown as an indication'
It was all congrats as the mr. and ms. African Sunday 2023 crowned the mr. and ms. African Sunday 2024.

From left, Mr.and Ms. African sunday 2024, Samuel Kyalo(st. Dominic scc), Bakhita Lucy Wangu(St. Michael scc) with runners up Wangechi Mary Nyambura(sts. Perpetua and Felicity scc) and Ngei Eric Muinde(St. Dominic scc).

AND THE PEAK OF THE DAY WAS YET TO BE UNVEILED...

This is a cake... A WHAT?

It was the climax as the beautifully decorated cake left many mouths watery and yearning to have a taste of Africanacity

And it was the duty of the parents to ensure that all the children had each an equal share of the prepared meal.

The day was remarkable. We are glad to have portrayed the true nature of African culture. Incorporating African culture aspects in worship as the theme of the day was:

CELEBRATING AFRICAN UNITY IN CHRIST.
